

Richard E. Anderson, M.D., F.A.C.P.

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
The Doctors Company, Napa, California

Richard E. Anderson, M.D., F.A.C.P., is chairman and chief executive officer of The Doctors Company, the nation's largest physician-owned medical malpractice insurance provider. Dr. Anderson was a clinical professor of medicine at the University of California, San Diego, and is past chairman of the Department of Medicine at Scripps Memorial Hospital, where he served as senior oncologist for eighteen years.

Dr. Anderson currently serves on the Board of Overseers of the RAND Institute for Civil Justice, the Board of Governors of the National Patient Safety Foundation (NPSF), the Board of Directors of Californians Allied for Patient Protection (CAPP), the Board of Directors of the Physician Insurers Association of America (PIAA), and currently chairs the PIAA Rating Agency Relations Committee.

Dr. Anderson is the editor of a book, Medical Malpractice: A Physician's Sourcebook, and the author of a number of peer reviewed publications on medical malpractice, the Harvard Medical Practice Study, and the impact of defensive medicine.

He has been invited to address numerous medical and legal forums. These include the American College of Surgeons, the American College of Physicians, the American Academy of Neurological Surgeons, the College of American Pathologists, the American Society of Plastic Surgeons, the American Medical Association, the academic medical centers of Stanford, UCLA, UCSD, Case Western, and the Cleveland Clinic, and the law schools of Columbia, Stanford, Northwestern and the University of Richmond.

Industry presentations include the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC), the PIAA, the Professional Liability Underwriters Society (PLUS), Crittenden, the American Association of Health Plans, and the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC).

Dr. Anderson is the first recipient of the PLUS Foundation's Award for Outstanding Leadership in Healthcare Professional Liability.

After graduating from Stanford Medical School, Dr. Anderson did his internship and residency at Harvard Medical School's Beth Israel Hospital, followed by his postdoctoral fellowship in medical oncology at Stanford. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree magna cum laude from Yale College.

Founded by doctors for doctors in 1976, The Doctors Company is relentlessly committed to advancing, protecting, and rewarding the practice of good medicine. The Doctors Company is the largest national insurer of physician and surgeon medical liability in the U.S. with 46,000 member physicians, $3 billion in assets, and an A rating by Fitch Ratings.