

Andrew Charron

Vice President - Medical Products Manager
Allied World Healthcare

Andrew Charron, Vice President, Medical Products Manager is responsible for product development and best practices associated with the medical professional liability lines of business within Allied World Healthcare, which include hospitals, surgicenters, senior living, physicians and miscellaneous institutions. In his previous position, he was responsible for the execution of Allied World's medical lines business strategy in the Northeast, New York and MidAtlantic regions of the country.

Andrew has 16 years of experience in the insurance industry, all of which have been dedicated exclusively to the healthcare sector. His broad experiences underwriting hospitals, physicians and miscellaneous medical risks at AIG, PHICO, GE Insurance Solutions (Medical Protective), and Darwin provide a strong platform from which to offer experienced underwriting solutions to medical professional insurance purchasers. Andrew obtained his BS Degree in business administration from the University of New Hampshire.

With our niche approach, Allied World has emerged as a market leader for healthcare specialty insurance coverage. We know this market and the challenges our clients face. Using proactive risk management services, we partner with our policyholders to provide a comprehensive range of products and services to meet the professional and management liability needs of hospitals, managed care organizations, miscellaneous medical facilities, long term care facilities, and clinical research laboratories.
