

Jill S. Goldsmith

Managing Partner
Bowman and Brooke LLP

Jill Goldsmith, is a trial lawyer and partner in the Phoenix office of Bowman and Brooke LLP. With more than 20 years of experience defending both product liability and healthcare claims in courts across the Southwest and nationwide, Jill's cases routinely involve a complex web of civil litigation claims against aggressive, well-financed, national plaintiffs firms. She has extensive experience defending catastrophic injury and wrongful death claims involving automobiles, medical devices, pharmaceuticals, children's toys, bicycles, as well as for long term care, assisted living facilities and home health agencies.

Jill has served on the Institutional Review Board for the Phoenix Children's Hospital, the Paradise Valley Hospital Review Board, and the Institutional Review Board of the Phoenix Regional Medical Center Hospital. She is also an active member of the Arizona Association of Defense Counsel, Arizona Health Care Association and Defense Research Institute, Inc. A cum laude graduate of the Arizona State University College of Law, she is licensed to practice in Arizona, Texas and multiple U.S. Federal courts. She was selected as a Super Lawyer by Southwest Super Lawyers Magazine in 2009.

In the last 25 years, Bowman and Brooke LLP has become a nationally recognized trial firm that defends a variety of corporate clients, including many household name companies, in high exposure litigation throughout all 50 states. Today, Bowman and Brooke provides a well-established array of complementary core practice groups to its national product liability defense practice, including healthcare and nursing home negligence, property damage litigation, toxic torts, liability prevention, class actions, consumer warranty litigation, intellectual property litigation, construction litigation and commercial litigation. The firm has 150 attorneys and offices in Minneapolis, Phoenix, Detroit, San Jose, Los Angeles, Richmond and Columbia.
