

Robert L. Grossman

Principal
Deloitte Consulting LLP

Rob is a principal of Deloitte Consulting LLP and leads the Tri-State (NY) Strategy & Operations consulting practice. Rob has almost 20 years of experience in corporate and financial strategy matters, with expertise in growth and innovation, capital allocation, strategic planning, and financial transactions such as mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures, and divestitures. Since 1997, Rob has also been responsible for acquisition and investment activities undertaken by Deloitte LLP and its affiliates. During this time he has completed more than 50 transactions for Deloitte, involving companies headquartered across North America, South America, Europe, and Australia. Aside from Deloitte, clients Rob has served include Goldman Sachs, KKR, Insurance Services Office, General Atlantic Partners, Irving Oil, The Dial Corp., Royal Ahold, and Deutsche Bank.

Prior to joining Deloitte, Rob worked in venture capital and investment banking at The Argentum Group and Bankers Trust Company, respectively. Rob has a B.S. degree in Economics with Distinction from Cornell University and a M.B.A. degree in Management Strategy and Finance from Northwestern University's J.L. Kellogg Graduate School of Management.

Rob is also actively involved in community service activities. He served on the finance committee of the Board of UJA-Federation of New York, one of the country's leading charitable organizations. He has also provided pro bono consulting services to several New York based charities including the Andrea and Charles Bronfman Philanthropies.
