

Bruce Hancock

President

Medical Indemnity Group, Inc.

Bruce Hancock is President of Medical Indemnity Group, Inc, a Scottsdale, AZ based boutique brokerage dedicated to providing risk and insurance solutions to healthcare providers in the Western U.S. The brokerage concentrates on Professional, Umbrella, and D&O Liability for Hospitals, Physician groups, Surgicenters, and Outpatient facilities and also offers Commercial Property, Casualty, and Health Insurance coverage to healthcare related risks.

Bruce has over 34 years of insurance experience. Prior to founding Medical Indemnity Group in 1995 he formed a Risk Purchasing Group in Arizona to provide additional malpractice markets for Physicians and Hospitals. Before that he served as a Vice President and Marketing Manager for a regional brokerage in Phoenix as well as a Senior Vice President and member of the National Marketing Committee for Rollins Burdick Hunter, the forerunner of Aon. Bruce did his undergraduate work at the University of Connecticut majoring in Pharmacy and Engineering and is working on CIC and RPLU designations.