

Elizabeth C. Kernan

Senior Vice President
ReSource Intermediaries, Inc.

Elizabeth Kernan began her reinsurance career in 1996 at Sedgwick Re in San Francisco after a short career in film and theatre. She spent the subsequent three years working as an Associate Broker in Sedgwick Re's Property facultative department. Shortly after the merger of Sedgwick Re and Guy Carpenter & Company in 1999, Elizabeth transitioned to Guy Carpenter's treaty reinsurance brokerage operation. As an Assistant Vice President, Elizabeth serviced a wide variety of clients including those specializing in Property, Worker's Compensation, Liability and Medical Malpractice. In April of 2004, Elizabeth joined Robert Kennedy and Alex Fox to start ReSource Intermediaries, Inc. As Senior Vice President she continues to service her diverse group of clients.

ReSource Intermediaries Inc. is an independent, employee owned and operated reinsurance advisory and brokerage firm founded in April 2004. ReSource Intermediaries Inc's clients are those who need and want close personal attention and innovative and custom crafted programs and products to meet the most demanding reinsurance needs. ReSource Intermediaries works with clients to develop and implement treaty reinsurance strategies including traditional treaty reinsurance, structured risk and financial reinsurance, facultative automatic facilities and various alternative risk hybrid strategies. ReSource's clients include: Insurance companies, larger self-insurers, Managing general agencies, Third party administrators and Alternative risk entities including Risk Retention Groups, Captives, Joint Power Authorities and Group Self Insurers.